

News in brief

COOKING UP STORM IN RECESSION

A BUILDER who decided to become a chef when the recession hit has found the perfect recipe for success.

Galway scaffolder Bill Garvey (37), who scaled enormous heights during the building boom, has landed on his feet in the recession after turning to his first love — cooking.

The Galway-Mayo IT mature student has just won the Knorr Student Chef of the Year award.

SKILFUL: Garvey